ISLAND COUNTY FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT No 3

SPECIAL MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS JUNE 29, 1967

This meeting is called for the purpose of opening bids for a new fire pumper truck for the district, at 7.00 P.M. at the public meeting room of the Whidbey Telephone Company at Bayveiw.

Commissioners present: David C. Henny ~~Lloyd S. Capp~~
Lloyd S. Capp
Joseph H. Long

Mr. Jack Halstead of the Halstead Fire Apparatus Spokane is present.
Mr. Bob Givens of the Givens Company representing Howe Fire Apparatus is present.

The bid of Halstead Fire Apparatus is opened and offers a bid price of $ 25,230.36 plus tax. No exceptions were taken to the specifications.

~~**~~

The bid of L.N. Curtis & Sons is opened and offers a bid price of $ 25,524.76 plus tax. The exceptions taken were on the side of upgrading the complete truck.

The Bid of Howe Fire Apparatus is opened and offers a bid price of $ 22,400.00 plus tax. Exceptions to specs were standard transmission with an added price of $ 112.00 for heavy duty transmission. A deduction of $ 450.00 for taking delivery at the factory.

The bid of P.E. Van Pelt was opened and offers a bid price of $ 22,399.00 plus tax. Exceptions were few and on the side of upgrading the truck. They offer reinforced frame at no extra cost. Also recommend full air brakes at an added $ 575.00 cost.

Mr. Halstead briefly explains their bid and some of the construction methods and materials used in their trucks.

Mr. Givens next explains the Howe apparatus methods and materials. Also states that Kitsap County Fire Dist # 4 has one of their trucks and invites the Commissioners to inspect it to check on quality.

There is discussion relative to the various bids but no action is taken, except to probably make a decision and award a contract at the next regular meeting on July 6.

These gentlemen are thanked for their interest.

Mr. Larry Alden arrived at 8.00 o'clock as a visitor only as he is not bidding on truck.

Meeting is adjourned at 9.30
